

Aptara places expert learning professionals on an as-needed project basis, allowing organizations to expand their learning capabilities... without expanding their permanent staff.

From conducting in-depth needs analysis to designing and developing world-class training courses in all mediums, our vast network of professionals brings cross-functional industry experience to all aspects of the training life-cycle.

We understand the unpredictable nature of the industry and are accustomed to placing top talent on tight timelines for short- or long-term assignments.

Aptara works with Fortune 500 companies, including:

Why Aptara?

- Experience – 23 years of experience working with the Learning Division of Fortune 500 companies, combined with proven processes and exceptional customer service.
- Customer Satisfaction – 80% of our business comes from repeat customers—a testament to our commitment to client satisfaction.
- Qualified Candidates – A vast database of highly educated and highly skilled learning professionals. Candidates individually vetted according to the specifics of every project.
- Rapid Response Time – Receive profiles of our top candidate suggestions within 3 days of a request.
- Flexibility – Our flexible work model places candidates for any time period, be it a week or a year, part-time or full-time, onsite or virtual.
- Highly Automated – Aptara learning consultants search our network of placement opportunities for real-time results and job specifics.

Aptara's places expert learning consultants around the world at competitive rates.

- Instructional Designers
- Trainers / Facilitators
- Technical Writers
- LMS Consultants
- Change Management Consultants
- Instructional Developers
- Learning Project Managers
- QA / Editors
- Organizational Development Consultants
- Process and Procedural Writers